- 1) Past performance in meeting financial obligations, especially rent.
- 2) A record of disturbance of neighbors, destruction of property, or housekeeping habits at prior residences which may adversely affect the health, safety, or welfare of other residents or cause damage to the apartment or community.

Listed below are the methods by which every applicant's performance, relative to each of the five criteria, will be checked:

- 1) Past performance meeting financial obligations, especially rent:
 - a) Contacting the current landlord and at least one prior landlord to cover a 5 year history.. The Landlord Verification Form will be used to gather previous rental history information.
 - b) The reason for checking with prior housing providers is that current housing providers of dangerous, destructive, or costly applicants may misrepresent information about them to get the Property to take over their problems. Contacts with all prior housing providers for at least the past five years are to be pursued.
 - c) If verified records of timely rental payments are received from management(s), no further documentation of past performance in meeting financial obligations, especially rent, need to be collected.

Otherwise eligible households who apply for housing with outstanding balances owed to the Property must pay any balance owed within 120 days of filing an application or have proof of a reasonable, agreed upon payment plan that is currently enforced and being paid as agreed prior to being placed on the Waiting List. Failure to pay within the allotted time will result in the application being rejected. Any household engaged in any such agreement must be re-verified for adherence to the agreement right before move in.

- 2) Disturbance of neighbors, destruction of property, living or housekeeping habits that would pose a threat to other residents:

- a) Staff will check for these potential problems with the current management and at least one former management using the Landlord Verification Form.
 - b) If the applicant is not currently living under a lease with a management, the housing provider will be asked to verify the applicant's ability to comply with Property lease terms as it relates to these guidelines. Any area for which the applicant has upkeep responsibility may be inspected.
 - c) An applicant's behavior toward Property Manager will be considered in relation to future behavior toward neighbors. Physical or verbal abuse or threats by an applicant toward Property Staff will be noted in the file. A history of this with prior Landlords may be cause for rejection.
- 3) Involvement in criminal activity on the part of any applicant household member which would adversely affect the health, safety, or welfare of other residents.
- 4) Criminal history checks of convictions per Criminal Background Policy
- 5) A record of eviction from housing or termination from residential programs will be considered:
- a) Property Manager will check Property records, management records, and other records to determine whether the applicants have been evicted from the Property, any other assisted housing, or any other property in the past
 - b) Records of evictions from residential programs will be checked with service agencies and with any housing providers referred by the applicant
 - c) Circumstances of any past eviction or termination in determining its relevance to Property tenancy.
- 6) Ability and willingness to comply with the terms of the Lease & Community Policies:
- a) If an applicant is able to document that he/she is complying with Lease and Community Policies in current and former residences, through a combination of management references and verifications, this criterion will be considered to have been satisfied.
- 7) An applicant's misrepresentation of any information related to eligibility, award of priority for admission, allowances, household composition, or rent.
- a) If, during the course of processing an application, it becomes evident that an applicant has falsified or otherwise misrepresented any facts about his/her current situation, criminal history, or behavior in a manner that would affect eligibility, priorities, application selection criteria qualification, allowances, or rent, the application shall be rejected.

- c) Management will follow the grievance process in compliance with requirements set forth in the current governing version of the HUD Handbook 4350.3

16. Applicants with Disabilities or Handicaps

Management must consider whether to reconsider a rejection of an applicant if he/she has a disability and the reasons for the rejection could be overcome by management's reasonable accommodation of the applicant's disability. For reasonable accommodations to apply there are several requirements. First, the applicant must have a verifiable disability [physical impairment that substantially limits one or more major life activities]. The disability must have a direct correlation to the reason the applicant would be rejected. The applicant must request the reasonable accommodation and provide verification of his/her disability and his/her need for the accommodation. Finally, for the accommodation to be reasonable it cannot result in a financial or administrative burden to the Property. In some situations, even with reasonable accommodations, applicants with disabilities cannot meet essential program requirements. In these situations the applicant is not eligible and the applicant will be rejected. Examples of such situations are where the behavior or performance in past housing caused a direct threat to the health or safety of persons or property; past history or other information that shows the applicant's inability to comply with the terms of the Property's lease; or an objective determination that the applicant would require services from management that represent an alteration in the fundamental nature of the Property's program.

- 1) If an applicant makes a request, management will provide a reasonable accommodation if the applicant has a verifiable disability that is directly related to the request and providing the reasonable accommodation will not result in a financial or administrative burden to management.
